What is in your hand?

"In God's hands WHATEVER tool we have or use can be an instrument of bringing His life to a hungry and thirsty world."

I can remember, at the age of 15, buying a used movie camera and feeling inside that this would be a tool that I would be using for much of my life. However, for the next decade I spent much of my time in both ministry and journalism and radio. While Pastoring and church planting I then began to be involved in co-producing and producing secular film and TV productions, as a "tent-making" opportunity. Years later we then, as a ministry, sensed God saying "You've done ministry, you've done film production. Now put the two of them together." Since that time we have now produced over 100 Christian films and in the midst of 22 different TV series aired on over 22 Christian TV networks to over 600 million people. Recently news of our interview with ex-PLO sniper Tass Saada received worldwide coverage. On one website we were quite encouraged to read how blessed some leaders were to hear of this testimony. There's nothing spectacular about a combination of pieces of metal and plastic with a magnetic tape inside taking "pictures". However, in God's hands WHATEVER tool we have or use can be an instrument of bringing His life to a hungry and thirsty world. We have used a variety of cameras through the years and I'm sure the future holds new changes. However, our message has always been the same - "Jesus Christ the same yesterday, today and forever". That message is even more current and appropriate today than ever before. The whole areas of broadcasting and the internet brings such vast opportunities that are growing year to year. We can now walk around with whole films on our mobile telephones! Who would have thought? One man wrote to us recently and said "I always like to hear of your work as you are one of the very few who actually gets off their chair and does something!" Let's do His work with what's in our hands.

A Word in Your Ear

Executive Producer David Sullivan with a new friend from Africa

Dear Prayer Partner & Friend,
Sometimes I share stories of the people whose pictures I display in this column. The man above I don't know from Adam! However, he is a dear brother in the Lord. He travelled from somewhere in Africa to an unknown land - Japan - in order to be encouraged in the Lord and to fellowship with thousands of other evangelists and Christian workers and to hear of new methods of carrying the Gospel. Each of these men and women of God have a passion for bringing God's Word to the lost. I haven't seen fire like that in a long time. Here in the West we feel that this part of the world is "Christianised". Yet most experts feel that the West is not post-Christian but pre-Christian (in great need of hearing the Gospel for the first time). I'm excited! One of my favourite stories I like to tell is of the shoe company that sent their best salesman to a 3rd world country. A telegram soon arrived at HQ stating "Terrible idea. No one wears shoes." A bit discouraged they promptly sent their "No. 2" salesman. Soon another telegram arrived with the words "Great idea! Send more stock! Everyone needs shoes!!". Which "sales person" are you? The world doesn't want Jesus but the world needs Jesus! When you think of all of the religions and sects out there that are peddling man made ideas and theories - even a lack of them - it is disheartening. Here in the U. K. there's now talk of a "church" school of atheism. Imagine teaching all day long eager youth that it's all pointless and useless and that we're of no more value than a germ. That's not why you and I are here. As the Apostle Paul stated we have a "high calling". Get on fire! If you can't then stand close to a person "on fire" and you soon will be! I recently watched a DVD of Reinhard Bonnke preaching to hundreds of thousands and the reaction of joy was deafening! Burn!

Yours for the harvest,

David Sullivan
