Following in the Footsteps of JESUS

"That is, you see, really following in the footsteps of Jesus."

Many people dream about the "tour of a lifetime" - going to the land of Israel to walk in the footsteps of Jesus. Yet it is not just the action of walking in the places where He was. It is also understanding the context of the people - how close The Temple Mount is to The Garden of Gethsemane. It is meeting both Jews and Arabs and understanding how and why they think and believe the way that they do. In the case of our 2010 tour members we saw, probably, 90% of the locations mentioned in the Gospels as well as some from the Old Testament. Many of us saw the President of Germany visit the Yad Vashem Holocaust Museum - a very moving experience to witness in this generation. Some of us heard the tearful account of the bombing of 14 year old Ami Ortiz by a fanatical man. The account was shared by his parents who also experience a healing that Ami's doctors could only explain as "a miracle". Forgiving was one of the first acts of Ami after the horrific events. That is, you see, really following in the footsteps of Jesus. Israel forgave Germany and Ami forgave his attacker. Six tour members were either baptised or rebaptised in the Jordan River. The act of doing that was, again, following in the pathway of the Saviour from Nazareth. Jesus understood the people He walked and talked with. To many of us our understanding comes from the front pages of biased news reports or second hand information. The peace in the Middle East which it desperately needs can only come from a spiritual confrontation with the God who became a servant and walked the shores of Galilee. He is the one who picked up the towel and washed His disciples feet. His shoes are big and His pathway narrow and long but it is what He has called us to do - follow in His footsteps.

A Word in Your Ear

*Executive Producer David Sullivan

Dear Prayer Partner & Friend,

I find that, recently, God is opening doors to a type of ministry that we still find we are trying to understand or name. As I continue to pray that my steps would be ordered by Him He continues to lead me to places where people need to hear the Gospel. Sometimes I am led to give a word of encouragement. Sometimes I am just in the presence of someone that He wants me to pray for - either audibly or inside. In the middle of Jerusalem I had the opportunity to talk with someone that I had been e-mailing for a number of years. He didn't know that I would be there and I didn't know that I would be there. It literally blew the doors off of my spiritual thinking. Next to the Sea of Galilee I stood next to Charles Price, Senior Pastor of The People's Church in Canada. Later I stood next to the President of Germany. Friends have said that this is too much of a coincidence when it happens month after month. I can't put a name to it or know what God is trying to say - or do. I just want to be available to use these opportunities. It's often a man in the street who has been praying for fellowship or a woman on an airplane who is seeking for more spirituality in life. One prophet laid on his side for over a year. Another walked around clothesless for 3 years. Neither one of those things made sense until God revealed what He was trying to say to the world around him. Maybe God wants to do something through YOU that you cannot name or understand but He keeps confirming it with His Word. We just need to be obedient. Years ago I spent the day with a famous clown. I interviewed him but then we just chatted about life. When he was next in town I called him again and we just spent the day together. He was unhappy and looking for truth, life and love. God wants us to be there for people - just a humble light on a hill. Yours for the Harvest,

David Sullivan
