Miracle Ministry on Miracle Channel

The U. K. based charity / ministry Harvest Fields Commissioning International started its existence in order to assist churches, ministries and NGOs around the world in training up leadership to fill vital roles in their organisations. The next step in growth came 7 years ago in 2003 when they chronicled their meetings in Rome with a special film about the city and the conference. That was almost 100 films ago and today HFC International and its film production arm, OLI Productions, have a worldwide viewership and are now being broadcast on over 20 Christian TV networks worldwide. It has been estimated that over 600 million people tune in to watch at least one of their TV programmes or view one of their films in any one week. The newest network to broadcast their productions is The Miracle Channel, Canada which originates from Alberta and broadcasts throughout Canada, into America and is also carried on cable networks worldwide. The Miracle Channel began broadcasting after 11 years of negotiations and hundreds of miracles as well as widespread prayer for the venture. CJIL Television, as it is also called, began broadcasting on 14 January 1996.

OLI Productions and HFC International produce a number of unique TV series including “Principles of Leadership” featuring well known Christian leaders including TV veteran Andrew Wommack, Anne Graham Lotz (daughter of evangelist Billy Graham), New York Times Best Selling author Joyce Meyer, the former Archbishop of Canterbury George Carey, “Brother Yun” author of the Best Selling book “The Heavenly Man”, author Lisa Bevere and “Brother Andrew” author of the Best Selling book “God’s Smuggler”. Another of their series is “Principles of Praise” in which famous Christian singers and songwriters share their inspiration and background. Previous guests have included Holy Trinity Brompton’s Tim Hughes, legendary Graham Kendrick, Lou Fellingham and Phatfish, Chris Bowater, Noel Richards and even country western singer and friend of Billy Graham, George Hamilton IV, from the Grand Ole Opry.
